Let me love you now

👁 27 ✓ 0 ★ 3

Chapter 1 by Artheimr

I live on a sharp edge of liking or despising and today, as always, they cut through beautifully. No one can stand before someone as cunning as me. So shall we start the game that shall end brutally.

Die and wither away like flowers, life is fleeting away, okay?

So just give up and look how fun it is, you will ask me for more. Become the prey trapped in my web. You're just moments away from rotting to the core with passing time, so let me love you now before you go.

And in this kind of way you won't forget the scars that never fade. Carved in you by me burnt in your memory. I just want to see more of your falling tears. If you can't concentrate, if it's something that you lack, then your done and the art is nothing but a trash.

No one gets how I feel, no one ever understands. Either way, I can say that they are not that smart. My own hands would decide on a path for nobody besides me, and my self alone. Although I know they'll just misunderstand, don't look at me in this disdain. And as I hunt them down I'm cornering them now and shedding blood as much as they'll allow. They're screaming out!

All gentle ladies want are what is beautiful. Something that's glittery, shiny and crucible. All that they want to do is just have some fun. What feels good every time. You're dying, so let me love you now before you go. And you wont forget the scars that I carved on you, forever.
